

QUEEN WILHELMINA TO THE EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL.

Holland's Sovereign Returns Thanks for Congratulations.

RULER TO HER PEOPLE.

Issues a Proclamation Accepting the Government of the Netherlands.

HER BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED.

Thanksgiving Services Held in All the Churches of the Kingdom—Hollanders of New York at a Reception.

The Hague, Aug. 31.—Upon the occasion of her birthday and the attainment of her majority to-day, Queen Wilhelmina Helena Pauline Maria, who was born August 31, 1880, issued this morning a proclamation to the people of the Netherlands. It was worded as follows:

"On this day, so important to you and me, I desire before all else to say a word of warm gratitude. From my tenderest years you have surrounded me with your love. From all parts of the kingdom, from all classes of society, young and old, I have always received striking proofs of attachment. After the death of my venerated father, all your attachment to the dynasty was transferred to me. On this day I am ready to accept the splendid though weighty task which I have been called, and I feel myself supported by your fidelity. Receive my thanks.

Tribute to Her Mother.

"My experience hitherto has left ineffaceable impressions, and is an earnest of the future. My dearly beloved mother, to whom I am immensely indebted, set me an example by her noble and exalted conception of the duties which henceforth devolved upon me. The aim of my life will be to follow her example and to govern in the manner expected of a princess of the house of Orange. True to the Constitution, I desire to strengthen the respect for the name and flag of the Netherlands.

"As sovereign of possessions and colonies East and West, I desire to observe justice and to contribute so far as in me lies to the increasing intellectual and material welfare of my whole people. I hope and expect that the support of all, in whatever sphere of official or social activity you may be placed, within the kingdom or without, will never be wanting.

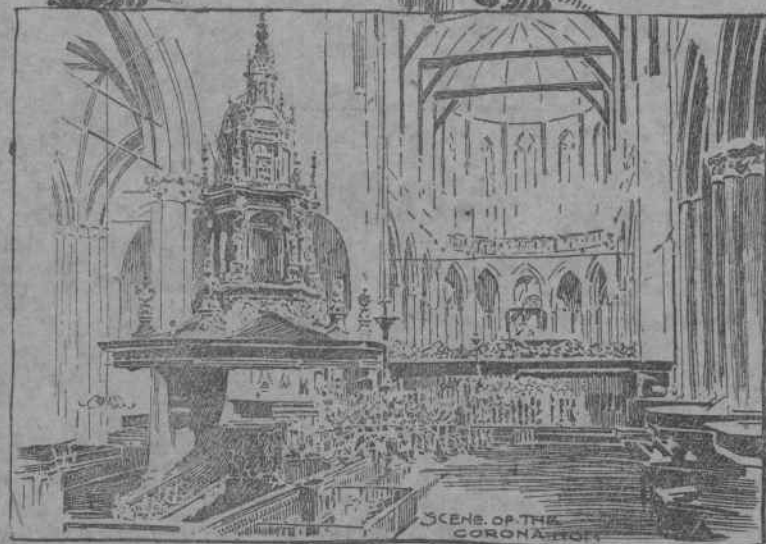

"Trusting in God, and with a prayer that He give me strength, I accept the Government.

The Queen at Church.

Solemn thanksgiving services were held here to-day in all the churches, as well as in the churches throughout Holland.

Queen Wilhelmina, accompanied by the Queen mother, attended divine services in the great church here this morning. The Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, the Grand Duchess of Mecklenburg, the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Diplomatic Corps, the civil and military authorities and 4,000 others were present.

The Court Chaplain, the Rev. G. J. Van der Flier, preached. He dwelt upon the

COPEL REELS A FEUD OF FAMILIES

Modern Romeo and Juliet Take Matters Into Their Own Hands.

THEIR LOVE TRIUMPHANT.

Once Bitter Foes Embrace at the Wedding Feast, and Peace Broods Over All.

It mattered not to Giuseppe and Isabella that their respective kin were at war. He was a De Vone, she was a Zita. In River street, Newark, where the De Vones and Zitas live, those two names were equivalent to Montagu and Capulet.

THE NEW CHURCH AMSTERDAM.

Giuseppe and Isabella had never heard of Romeo and Juliet, but that did not prevent them from treading through the ancient measure of the old romance, which is just as real in a tenement as it ever was in a palace. Only in the last act there is an essential variation from the original, for instead of poison and a tomb this modern version winds up with a wedding and a triumphant reconciliation of the Montagu and Capulet—or rather of the De Vones and Zitas.

Giuseppe and Isabella are twenty-one and fifteen, respectively—very near the ages of their immortal prototypes. She was too young to waste much thought on the feud and too pretty to let Giuseppe remember it.

It became known to the elder De Vones and Zitas not long ago that Giuseppe and Isabella were shirking family responsibilities—that they did not hate each other as they were in honor bound to do. This discovery caused a profound shock in both camps, and the negligent young persons were warned that it was necessary for them to abandon the vendetta, but could not possibly endure life away from each other, they went away on Saturday night to Morristown, and yesterday they issued ultimatums to the De Vones and Zitas to the effect that they would return home on one condition that they should be speedily married.

It was a bitter pill for the De Vones and Zitas to swallow, but they had to choose between the vendetta and the interest of the flocks. Mutual friends interposed with pacific advice and a protocol was established. Then, after an earnest conference, it was agreed that peace with Giuseppe and Isabella was preferable to war without those impulsive young persons, and an emissary was dispatched to bid them return.

So the modern Romeo and Juliet came back, with the olive branch of peace, and were married by a Justice of the Peace.

Immediately afterward the religious ceremony took place in the Italian Catholic Church, and then there was a notable feast, at which the De Vones and Zitas embraced one another and pledged eternal friendship in beakers of choicest champagne.

CALL LITTLE GIRL A SHOPLIFTER.

Seven Years Old, with Her Brother Ten, She Is Arrested for Stealing Trousers.

John Smith, ten years old, and his sister Maud, seven, of No. 185 Allen street, Manhattan, were arraigned before Justice Potts, in the Gregory street (Jersey City) police station, yesterday, charged with shoplifting, but because of their age and the fact that the complaining storekeeper refused to prosecute they were discharged. The children went into the store of E. Caplan, at No. 98 Edwards avenue, on Tuesday evening. The boy looked at trousers, while the girl was in another part of the store. When the children departed, it is alleged that two pairs of men's trousers and one vest went too. Caplan notified the police, and when they came to the store, under a long cape which the little girl wore the trousers and vest were found. The children spent the night at Police Headquarters. When arraigned their parents said that they had moved from Bayonne a short time ago, and that the children were sent to Bayonne to make arrangements for the shipping of a trunk to New York. Justice Potts gave the children the benefit of the doubt, and allowed them to go.

BARONDESS FLAYS THE SOCIALISTS.

Former Leader of Cloakmakers Gives His Reasons for Not Affiliating with Them.

Joseph Baronde, former leader of the cloakmakers, issued a statement yesterday giving his reasons and the reasons of those who are associated with him for not affiliating with the Socialist Labor party. He says among other things: "We object to having a padlock placed on our mouths by a so-called Socialist organization, and be prevented from expressing our opinions as to the policy of the organization and its officials under threat of banishment and excommunication. "We do not believe it to be the business of a socialist labor party to denounce every honest and useful man in the labor movement because he happens to disagree with its policies. "We do not believe in a system of espionage and prying into the private lives of Socialists for the purpose of inventing malicious stories, whereby their reputations might be sullied."

THREE ENGLISH BEAUTIES ARE DUE.

ABEL LANE, Sybil Carlisle and Jessie Bateman are not "Gaiety Girls," though quite as charming as Marie Sturholme and her companions.

CUBAN BEAUTIES DID NOT STEAL.

"The Misses Doe," Who Robbed a Garden, Not the Misses Macias.

RARE HYDRANGEAS GONE.

John S. Foster's Man Took the Flowers from Two Girls, but Got the Wrong Girls.

Two pretty, daintily attired girls tripped into Justice Cooper's court at Babylon yesterday to answer to a charge of larceny preferred by William T. Smith, foreman of John S. Foster. They were the Misses Macias, of Cuba, relatives of Captain-General Macias, of Porto Rico.

A few nights ago a man and two women stripped Mr. Foster's lawn of a beautiful bed of rare hydrangeas. They were seen and the flowers were taken from them. Foreman Smith became convinced that the Misses Macias were the thieves and caused their arrest. Not knowing their names the warrant was issued for "Jane Doe" and "Susan Doe."
